

Graphic Design for Studio Art Majors!

*Summer Session II
Fredericksburg, TX
July 10–29, 2016*

ART 4304–170 / 5304–170 | Independent Study in Art—Graphic Design for Studio Art Majors

Students will be challenged conceptually and technically in this three week intensive introduction to the practice of Graphic Design. Topics covered will include identity development / self promotion, communicating concept with typography and the development of information systems. Participants will have an opportunity to extend their existing skills onto a variety of alternative communication platforms in this active, hands-on studio course. Graduate students in addition to undergrads welcome!
